The ancient story

Barāwa is both showcase and in-situ model that educates and persuades replication. It will be made of elements of the traditional eco-friendly agricultural engagement. The park will showcase the rich biodiversity of the island. Each plant will be identified by common and scientific name. The main uses of the plant, medicinal or otherwise will also be indicated.